SOUTH DAKOTA PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION

W Natalie Gottlob, Morgan had three blocks within the first few minutes of the game and Gottlob had four of her 6 points in the first period. MCM led 12 to 7 after the first eight minutes.

W Both teams upped their offensive fire power in the second quarter. Hanson managed to make a bit of a run with their intense, full-court press. The girls in green/white battled back though as Koepsell poured in 10 of her 22 points in the second quarter. Rachael Laetsch helped out from behind the arc with one of her three shots from downtown in the period also. She finished the night with a double-double with 15 points and 10 assists. Hanson did manage to outscore the home team in the quarter, but MCM still took the lead at 27 to 23 into the locker room.

Hanson came out on a mission in the third quarter. The pressure of the press and the aggressiveness were both increased in the quarter and they showed why they are force to reckon with in the area. Hanson flung in 16 points in the quarter and played some pretty good defense. Emil Heumiller, Dani Hansen, and Natalie Gottlob kept the girls strong though grabbing some crucial boards within that quarter. MCM failed to keep up on the scoreboard in the quarter though and Hanson led 39 to 37 with eight minutes to go.

The lady Fighting Cougars fought back though in the fourth and flexed their fire power by doing so. Briann Painter scored 7 of her 9 points in the quarter and Laetsch pushed her scoring efforts to 9 points within
