

but to grant the request to clarify or amend the Protective Order. The Commission voted unanimously to amend paragraph 3 of the Protective Order to read as follows:

3. Any Party, and their attorney, receiving Confidential information from another Party, or from the Commission in the case of filed documents, is responsible to the Commission and to the providing Party for limiting disclosure only to such Party's attorneys of record, their co-counsel, and professional staff. In addition, expert witnesses retained by the parties entitled to access to confidential information pursuant to the terms of this Protective Order may review confidential documents provided that each such expert is identified to the Applicant in advance of the disclosure and each such expert has signed the Non-Disclosure Agreement appended hereto as Exhibit A agreeing to be bound by the terms of this Protective Order. In addition, non-expert witnesses or any intervenor may be entitled to access to confidential information if the Applicant agrees to such access. All confidential documents provided to BOLD Nebraska and the Rosebud Sioux Tribe as a result of their requests for access to documents provided to other parties shall be subject to the protective provisions of this Protective Order, and all persons receiving such documents shall have previously executed the Non-Disclosure Agreement as referenced above.

It is therefore

ORDERED, that the request to vacate the Protective Order is hereby denied. It is further ORDERED, that the request to clarify or amend the Protective Order is hereby granted subject to the limitations and protective provisions set forth above.

Dated at Pierre, South Dakota, this 4th day of May, 2015.
