Subject: The public comments on Prevailing Winds

As proof of the tactics of the wind farm developers, I see today they posted 9 new posts all for Prevailing Winds. They all have the same style of return address, they are a form letter, although each had a little different sentence. Not one of these 9 from Rapid City, Vermilion, Buffalo Gap, Sioux Falls, Brandon, will ever live under these turbines [REDACTED] is an investor in B & H Wind. [REDACTED] to my knowledge is [REDACTED] brother. I assume the rest are investors, but they certainly are not Bon Homme County residents. I think it is shameful for the developers and investors to stack the deck against the residents. We have had no protection at the county level and I see they are right back at it. Please post this e mail on the public comment section as well.
