Brooke:

Thank you for forwarding these discovery documents in the SDPUC case.

Because of the pending federal court preliminary injunction, our client's will not have these discovery documents completed within thirty days.

Also, because NAT's Motion to Stay is currently pending, I do not believe my client would be ordered to complete these discovery documents until the Motion to Stay is decided by the SDPUC.

Can we agree to hold these discovery documents "in abeyance" until the SDPUC rules on NAT's Motion to Stay?

Thank you for this consideration.

Scott
