2-5) Are there any differences in charges between Lifeline customers and non-Lifeline customers?

Response to Data Request 2-5: Yes, the plans differ in pricing for Lifeline customers and non-Lifeline customers. Specifically, Lifeline customers may apply the federal Lifeline subsidy and the Company-subsidized credit to Total Call’s retail plans; non-Lifeline customers must pay the retail price for these plans.

Total Call hereby submits to the Commission two amendments to its proposed Lifeline offering. Total Call’s changes to its proposed Lifeline offering for South Dakota are consistent with changes that the Company is making to its Lifeline offering in other states, and may be summarized as follows:

1. Remove the 150-Minute plan
2. Make the Unlimited Talk (UT) plan, which retails at $29.99, available to eligible Lifeline customers at the discounted rate

Total Call has attached its amended proposed Lifeline offering for South Dakota as Attachment B to these responses.

Given these changes, the discounted prices on Total Call’s amended Lifeline plans, which will be offered to qualified Lifeline consumers in Illinois, are as follows:
