Dear Ms. Van Gerpen:

On May 25, 2012, Knology, Inc. ("Knology"), WideOpenWest Finance, LLC ("WOW!"), and Knology Community Telephone, Inc., Knology of the Black Hills, LLC and Knology of the Plains, Inc. (collectively, the "Licensees" and with Knology and WOW!, the "Parties") notified the South Dakota Public Utilities Commission (the "Commission") of the proposed transfer of indirect control of the Licensees to WOW!.

WOW!, through its undersigned counsel, hereby notifies the Commission that the Parties consummated the transaction on July 17, 2012. The transaction was transparent to the Licensees' customers, the Licensees continue to operate in South Dakota pursuant to their existing certificates, and the Licensees' customers continue to receive services at the same rates, terms, and conditions as they received prior to the closing.

Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions.

Very truly yours,
