- 1-1) Exhibit A states the Safety Net Additive Support (SNA) is $0. The information provided on the USAC website indicates SNA total of ($264) for October, 2012. Please explain the variance in the SNA amounts?

Not showing the ($264) on Exhibit A for Safety Net Additive Support was an oversight on our part. We actually had to pay the $264 back in October 2012. We had received an overpayment of $264 from Safety Net Additive Support in a prior year and were paying it back in October 2012.
