

- 2-1) Explain Mr. Fabbriatore's role in CTC Communications Group, Inc., et al v. Robert J. Fabbriatore, et al, Case No. 05-01441, United States Bankruptcy Court, District of Massachusetts and how that was resolved.

Response: Mr. Fabbriatore was named as a defendant in Case No. 05-01441, United States Bankruptcy Court, District of Massachusetts¹ due to his former position as Chief Executive Officer of CTC Communications Corp. CTC Communications Corp. filed for bankruptcy after Mr. Fabbriatore resigned in 2002. All claims, counterclaim or cross-claims brought by or against Mr. Fabbriatore were dismissed with prejudice on September 17, 2008.

- 2-2) In what other litigation has Mr. Fabbriatore been named as a party?

Response: Mr. Fabbriatore has not been name as a party in other litigation.

- 2-3) What was the final result in those matters?

Response: N/A

- 2-4) Has New Horizons been granted authority by any commissions for local or interexchange service since the conclusion of the case mentioned in 2-1?

Response: Yes, New Horizons was granted Alabama CLEC authority in January 2013, Arkansas CLEC authority in August 2013, California CLEC authority in March 2009, Idaho CLEC authority in April 2013, Indiana CLEC authority in June 2010, Iowa CLEC authority in December 2012, Kentucky CLEC authority in October 2012, Louisiana CLEC authority in February 2014, Michigan CLEC authority in December 2008, Minnesota CLEC authority in January 2013, Mississippi CLEC authority in February 2013, Missouri CLEC authority in December 2012, Montana CLEC authority in July 2012, Nebraska CLEC authority in November 2013, New Mexico CLEC authority in January 3013, North Dakota CLEC authority in September 2013, Ohio CLEC authority in April 2009, Oregon IXC and CLEC authority in December 2008, South Carolina IXC, CLEC, and VoIP authority in March 2014, Virginia IXC and CLEC authority in October 2008, Wisconsin CLEC authority in February 2013, and Wyoming CLEC authority in in January 2013.

¹ Case No 058-01441-RS was jointly administered with District of Delaware, Chapter 11 Case No. 02-12873.