Re: Notice of a Change in Ownership TC 19-004

Communications Venture Corporation d/b/a INdigital "INdigital" holds authorizations in South Dakota as a Competitive Local Exchange and Interexchange Carrier (TC19-004). INdigital submits this Notice of a Change in Ownership from our original ownership to a non-utility entity.

Currently, INdigital is a privately-owned Indiana corporation. The majority ownership and control is being acquired by INdigital Holdings, Inc. a Delaware corporation, who is not a utility or certificated telecommunications provider.

The transaction is customer-transparent as INdigital will remain the provider of all services. Our corporate structure will remain Communications Venture Corporation d/b/a INdigital, and no changes are being made to our management, address, contact information, designated agent nor any changes in services, rates, terms or conditions, etc. as a result.

Sincerely,

/s/ Mark Grady
