RE: Request for Voluntary Cancellation of Certificate of Authority and withdrawal of tariff, AccessLine Communications Corporation

To Whom it May Concern:

AccessLine Communications Corporation (“ACC”) respectfully notifies the South Dakota Public Utilities Commission that it is voluntarily requesting cancellation of its certificate of authority to provide interexchange telecommunications services and withdrawal of any tariff,¹ with an effective date of May 22, 2026.

The public convenience and necessity will not be adversely affected by the action described herein. ACC does not offer or provide any intrastate telecommunications services to South Dakota customers pursuant to the above-referenced certificate, and therefore no customer’s services will be interrupted or disconnected. Therefore, customer notice is not applicable.

ACC acknowledges its obligation to remit a final Gross Revenue Bill.

To ensure that the Commission’s records are updated, the company point of contact is:

Susan Desgrouilliers, Senior Manager, Regulatory and Tax Compliance; Phone: 650-352-4216; Email: sdesgrouilliers@intermedia.com.

If you have any questions regarding this request, please contact the undersigned.

Respectfully submitted,

Glenn S. Richards
Counsel for AccessLine Communications Corporation

¹ ACC was authorized to provide interexchange telecommunications services on January 26, 2005, in Docket TC04-252.
