Pursuant to SDCL 49-41B-17 and ARSD 20:10:22:40 Minnehaha County, a political subdivision of the State of South Dakota,

(Name of Applicant)

petitions the Public Utilities Commission to be granted party status in the above-referenced facility permit proceeding.

Briefly explain your interest in this permit proceeding. Form is limited to 1000 characters.

A portion of the proposed route of the Dakota Access, LLC, pipeline project is located within the boundaries of Minnehaha County. The County expects the project to have actual or potential economic, social, and/or environmental impact on the County; actual or potential impact on public health, safety, and/or welfare of the County and its residents; and, actual or potential impact on the orderly economic development within the County. Also, the County has a direct interest in assuring compliance with all applicable laws, rules, regulations, and ordinances, as well as an interest in having its interests fully represented before the Public Utilities Commission in this matter. Therefore, the County respectfully requests this body grant its Application for Party Status.
