---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

On May 30, 2018, the South Dakota Public Utilities Commission (Commission) received an Application for a Facility Permit for a wind energy facility (Application) from Prevailing Wind Park, LLC to construct the Prevailing Wind Park Project (Project), a wind energy facility located on approximately 50,364 acres of land in Bon Homme, Charles Mix, and Hutchinson counties, South Dakota, between the towns of Avon, Tripp, and Wagner, South Dakota. The total installed capacity of the Project would not exceed 219.6 MW nameplate capacity. The proposed Project includes up to 61 wind turbine generators, access roads to turbines and associated facilities, underground electrical power collector lines connecting the turbines to the collection substation, an operation and maintenance facility, and temporary construction areas, including crane paths, public road improvements, a laydown yard, and a concrete batch plant(s) (as needed), and four permanent meteorological towers. The Project would interconnect at Western Area Power Administration's existing Utica Junction Substation, located approximately 27 miles east of the project.

On May 31, 2018, the Commission electronically transmitted notice of the filing and the intervention deadline of July 30, 2018, to interested persons and entities on the Commission's PUC Weekly Filings electronic listserv. On June 1, 2018, the Commission issued a Notice of Application; Order for and Notice of Public Input Hearing; Notice of Opportunity to Apply for Party Status. On July 12, 2018, a public input hearing was held as scheduled and the Commission received applications for party status from six individuals and one local government. On July 20, 2018, Commission Staff submitted a Motion for Adoption of Procedural Schedule. On August 2, 2018, Prevailing Winds filed a Response Motion for Adoption of Procedural Schedule.

The Commission has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to SDCL Chapters 1-26 and 49-41B, specifically 49-41B-17, and ARSD Chapter 20:10:22, specifically 20:10:22:40.

At its regularly scheduled meeting on August 7, 2018, the Commission considered this matter. Commission staff recommended granting party status and adopting the procedural schedule. The Commission voted unanimously to grant party status and adopt the procedural schedule. It is therefore ORDERED, that the parties shall follow the procedural schedule as set forth below except as otherwise ordered by the Commission.
