)	HP14-001

COMES NOW, the Indigenous Environmental Network (IEN), by and through counsel, Kimberly E. Craven, admitted pro hac vice, and moves to join Intervenor Party, the Yankton Sioux Tribe's Motion to Dismiss TransCanada Keystone Pipeline LP's Petition for Certification. As grounds the Indigenous Environmental Network states:

1. On December 1, 2014, Intervenor, Yankton Sioux Tribe filed a Motion to Dismiss TransCanada Keystone Pipeline LP's Petition for Certification of the Keystone XL Pipeline pending before the South Dakota Public Utility Commission.

2. In all substantive ways, the Yankton Sioux Tribe's Motion to Dismiss applies with equal force to the Indigenous Environmental Network. As such, the Indigenous Environmental Network seeks to join in the Yankton Sioux Tribe's Motion to Dismiss.

3. WHEREFORE, Kimberly Craven respectfully requests that the South Dakota Public Utility Commissioners enter an Order permitting the Indigenous Environmental Network to join the Yankton Sioux Tribe's Motion to Dismiss.

Dated this 2nd Day of January, 2015.
