My land is within the range of impact if a pipeline leak would occur. This project will have significant impact not only on the residents of Minnehaha County, but the first responders as well. We need to stay mindful many of our first responders are volunteers that are desperately needed in our area. I am also concerned about the out of state entities once again coming into South Dakota and trying to make our officials believe that they are public utilities instead of the for profit companies they currently are. I am also concerned about the long range possibilities of pipeline abandonment which would cost more to remove than it will to install and the push for eminent domain for the right of ways which would set in motion the ability of these private companies to sell the easement rights to anyone they can get the best monetary gain out of. South Dakota is a great state and we have the responsibility to protect our citizens and our land.
