I am the Administrator of a campus located between Valley Springs, SD and Brandon, SD that has independent living, Assisted Living, and Skilled Nursing Care for the local senior care population. Hearing that there will potentially be a new pipeline installed in the area set off some red flags for me in terms of Emergency Preparedness and disaster planning.

I would have multiple questions on the safety of the equipment, where exactly this pipe would be located, and what emergency response is required if a pipe were to burst. I would be concerned that any impurities in the line could cause back up and pipe explosions which could potentially impact my facility and my resident population.
