Mr. Anderson,

Please provide your full address along with your name and comment regarding an open docket before the South Dakota Public Utilities Commission. Note the following information posted on the commission's website in the Pipeline Siting Info Guide and under the Contact PUC tab.

Submit comments. Members of the public are encouraged to submit written comments about an active siting case to the PUC. These informal public comments are reviewed and considered by the PUC commissioners and staff. Comments should include the docket number or siting project name, commenter's full name, mailing address, e-mail address and phone number. These comments should be emailed to puc@state.sd.us or mailed or hand delivered to PUC, 500 E. Capitol Ave., Pierre, SD 57501. Comments are posted in the "Comments" section of the docket within a reasonable time after having been received. The commenter's name, city and state will be posted along with their comment. Comments received from businesses, organizations or other commercial entities (on letterhead, for example) will include the full contact information for such.

The following excerpts from the Pipeline Siting Info Guide relay the variety of ways for South Dakotans and others to stay informed and involved in a siting docket such as this. The public input meetings are simply one option.

Attend a public input meeting. The PUC will hold a public input meeting or meetings on a pipeline siting case, with 30 days' notice, as physically close as practical to the proposed route. At the meeting, the applicant describes its project and the public may ask questions and offer comment. Commissioners and staff attend this public meeting.

Become an intervenor. Individuals who wish to be formal parties in a siting case may apply to the commission for intervenor status. Intervention deadline is clearly indicated within the docket.

Intervention is appropriate for people who intend to actively participate in the case through legal motions, discovery (requests for facts or documents), the written preparation and presentation of actual evidence, and in-person participation in a formal hearing. Intervenors are legally obligated to respond to discovery from other parties and to submit to cross-examination at a formal hearing. Individuals seeking only to follow the progress of a siting case or to offer comments for the PUC's consideration need not become intervenors.
