

Navigator CO₂

PROFILE

As EVP of Engineering, Stephen is responsible for the safe, reliable, compliant execution of the NCO2V Capital Program. Responsibilities include engineering, project management, construction, environmental and permitting, and right-of-way acquisition.

CONTACT

WEBSITE:
navigatorco2.com

EMAIL:
SLee@navco2.com

STEPHEN LEE, P.E.

Executive Vice President, Engineering and Construction

WORK EXPERIENCE

Navigator, SVP/EVP, Engineering and Construction
[2019-current]

Serves as the head of the Engineering and Construction department for two of the Navigator companies, Glass Mountain Pipeline companies (Oklahoma and Texas crude pipelines) 2019-current, and Navigator CO₂, 2020-current

Plains All-American Pipeline, Director of Special Projects
[2012-2017]

Oversaw and managed a large capital project portfolio associated with intermodal transportation and storage of crude in the Gulf Coast and Midcontinent regions. Project Leader for the $923MM Diamond Project, approximately 450 miles of 20" pipeline and four facilities, with oversight and direction of entire project

Southern Union - FGT, Project Manager
[2009-2012]

Directly managed capital and pipeline operations projects for the Southeast Division. Includes integrity validations, greenfield and brownfield installations, and compliance auditing

EDUCATION

University of Houston

M.B.A., Global Energy Management – May 2013

Texas A&M University

Bachelor of Science, Mechanical Engineering – May 2001

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS & CERTIFICATIONS

- NBE Borger Express ($224MM) – 193 mi of 16" [2019 – Present]
- Diamond Pipeline ($923MM) – 450 mi of 20" and Facilities [2012-2017]
- FGT AMAOP Uprate – 742 mi of 36" integrity validation and uprate for 80% SMYS [2009-2012]
- Registered Professional Engineer, State of Texas