Rep. Gross,

This is in response to your message to a South Dakota Public Utilities Commissioner regarding an open docket before the commission.

This Pipeline Siting Information Guide, posted on the commission website home page and in the relevant dockets, explains the commission's processing of such dockets. See excerpts below.

Submit comments. Members of the public are encouraged to submit written comments about an active siting case to the PUC. These informal public comments are reviewed and considered by the PUC commissioners and staff. Comments should include the docket number or siting project name, commenter's full name, mailing address, e-mail address and phone number. These comments should be emailed to puc@state.sd.us...

Communicate on record. Verbal communication between a commissioner and a person with an interest in a matter before the commission that does not occur in a public forum or as part of the official record should be avoided. Those who communicate in writing with a commissioner about an open or imminent docket matter should understand that their comments will become part of the official record and subject to review by all parties and the public...

Your message will be posted under Comments and Responses in docket HP22-002.
