The recent possibility off a 45% or more increase in my electric bill, between my car payment and other bills and having medical expenses, this would impact my wellbeing. With wages not going up this would put a serious hurt on everyone to the point of some being made homeless due to landlords raising rents, with increase in everything, everyone is trying to make ends meet as is. It would cause an increase in people needing state assistance.

I would hope you would think about the impact this would make on everyone. At this point in time none of us need a higher bill.
