

1-2 Dakota Energy Cooperative will only be extending its primary cable by approximately 1100' with a system voltage of 7200 volts the addition of this home will not negatively impact the system or members around it.

1-3 The construction of a new residential home will promote the development and expansion of the local electric cooperative system by creating a new electrical service connection and increasing the need for reliable electric infrastructure.

