Subject: [EXT] COVID-19 and State Regulation: Part 2

Greetings! On behalf of Tony and Matt, I am pleased to send this second installment of our white paper series on the impact of COVID-19 on the regulation of the utility sector. To paraphrase Elvis Costello, “we still own the film rights, but have been working on the sequel...”. OK, so film rights probably aren’t worth much, but this sequel takes a deeper dive into longer-term policy and regulatory considerations raised by the pandemic and the reopening of the American economy.

We hope you find this helpful as you carry-on the important work of balancing the public interest during these challenging times. As always, we welcome your feedback.

Please don’t hesitate to call if we may ever be of assistance.
