3-3. What was the total outstanding balance of these same customers at the time the disconnection moratorium began?

As of March 16, 2020, the total for accounts that would have been subject to disconnection proceedings at that time was approximately $1.1M for Residential accounts and approximately $230K for Non-Residential accounts. The weekly report we referenced in collecting this information only goes to the customer account level but does not distinguish between electric or natural gas customer accounts.
