SOUTH DAKOTA PUBLIC
UTILITIES COMMISSION

Ms VAN GERPEN

Clint Jacobson, of the Jacobson Agency in Groton, forwarded paperwork to me (regarding the TransCanada pipeline application) that I am responding to. My brother (Ramon) and I own several parcels of land in South Dakota, but since he lives in Salt Lake City and I in Las Vegas, Clint manages our land, including the paying of taxes.

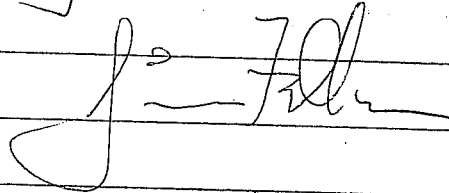

I am enclosing the duly notarized "Application for Party Status", as I believe my brother has already done. We have already hired a lawyer to fight this, since the pipeline will be crossing land we are establishing a pheasant reserve on.

I have already discussed this situation with Kara and Nathan, and will be looking forward to the PUC rejecting the application from TransCanada. In the meantime, I will monitor the process from your web site, assuming that it will be updated on a regular basis.

Thank you for notifying us of the procedures involved in a timely manner (bad English!)

Have a good day
