we face. I felt that it was my civic duty to step forward at this time and do what I can to help fix the problems. I am a landowner and taxpayer who has six children that will go through the Winner School District. Since I am doing this as a civic duty, I won't take the per-meeting salary from the District. What experience and/or quali-fications do you have that would be beneficial to the school board? I have a Bachelor of Science degree
