Message Body:

Wandering what your thoughts are on the pipeline. The line is mapped to go through my farmland and I have made it clear that I don't want it as the same as my neighbors. But evidently no doesn't mean no anymore, I sure hope that as our elected officials you will be behind us to make sure these million dollar companies don't walk all over the farmers with the idea of eminent domain. Please contact me personally. Phone call would be great thanks. My number is
