Notice of Public Hearing

A public hearing will be held at the Capitol, 500 East Capitol, Pierre, Room 189, 2205 Career Place, Sioux Falls, South Dakota, on August 10, 2006, at 8:30 a.m., to consider the rules numbered:

20:10:11-13, 20:10:11-16 and

One of the effects of the proposed rule is to allow the construction requirements for grain storage units. Another effect is to allow seasonal emergency storage will allow grain outside between July 1 and for non-seasonal emergency storage will allow a public grain warehouse from February 1 and June 30. Commission will allow seasonal emergency storage. For seasonal storage, a warehouse operator record of the grain.

The main reason for the proposed rule is to allow warehouses to store grain outside. The rule allows grain to be stored outside if the grain is filled to capacity. This will allow grain from large harvests in order to be stored for producer customers. The reason for the rule is to allow grain to be stored outside.
