RE: Sprint Communications Company, L.P. – Arbitration Consolidation:
Brookings Municipal Utilities d/b/a Swiftel Communications TC 06-176

Dear Ms. Van Gerpen:

As requested by the Commission when it set a Scheduling Order in the above-entitled matter, the parties have developed a Protective Order that the parties jointly request the Commission sign to control the exchange of documents in the arbitration proceeding. Staff attorney, Kara Van Bockern had no objections to the Order.

I have attached a copy of the Protective Order and would request the Commission sign the order as soon as time permits as the parties will exchange discovery on December 22, 2006, and the Protective Order should be in place prior to the exchange of documents to ensure a free exchange on that date. I will send the Order in Word format if you need to change the Order.

The parties do not believe it is necessary to hold a hearing on the entry of the Protective Order because the parties have agreed to the form. If the Commission still desires to hold a hearing, please let us know.

If you have any questions or desire any further information, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Talbot J. Wiczorek
