Notice to Tri-County Telcom, Inc. Customers

Lifeline, Link Up, and Toll Limitation Service support provide discounts to eligible low-income consumers to help them establish and maintain telephone service. Note: Telecommunications carriers cannot charge a Lifeline customer federal USF fees on the local service portion of their telephone bill.

What type of discount is available?

Lifeline assistance lowers the cost of basic, monthly local telephone service. Eligible consumers can receive up to $8.25 per month in discounts.

Link Up reduces the cost of initiating new telephone service. Eligible consumers can receive up to a 50% discount off of the one-time costs associated with initiating telephone service. Eligible consumers also qualify for a deferred payment schedule for remaining costs of up to $200.

Toll Limitation Service (TLS) support allows eligible consumers who wish to avoid incurring large long distance fees to choose toll blocking or toll control at no cost.

How do I know if I am eligible?

An individual is eligible for Lifeline, Link Up, and TLS support if he or she participates in one of the following programs:

- Low-Income Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP)
- Federal Public Housing Assistance or Section 8
- Medicaid (NOT MEDICARE)
- Food Stamps
- Supplemental Security Income (SSI)
- Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF)
- National School Lunch Program's free lunch program
- In addition, a consumer may be eligible if his or her household income is at or below 135% of the federal poverty guidelines:

▶ A consumer may be eligible if their total household income is at or below 135% of the federal poverty guidelines in states that follow the federal eligibility criteria. Click here for a list of states using the federal eligibility criteria.

▶ States that have their own Lifeline and Link Up Programs may set their own eligibility criteria by increasing OR decreasing total household income limits or choosing not to use total household income as an eligibility criterion.

▶ Additionally, some states may use total household income as eligibility criteria, but develop their own limits. For information about income based eligibility in these states contact the state commission.
