Did the parties ever decide on a date for the Commission to hear these motions?

Phil and Karen:

I have not had a chance to confer with Jim about his availability, but I have a conflict that will prevent me from participating on the 24th. I was hoping that, even if it requires slightly faster response times from us, we could work towards a hearing on April 10th.

Thanks,
David

Karen,

I am unavailable on the 27th.

We are considering filing two additional motions that it would make sense to hear along with this one. On one, we owe David a letter outlining issues that we can then discuss before filing. I hope to have a letter to David on Tuesday. If we move forward and the motions are filed next week or early the week after, the 10th seems tight, making the 24th, in our opinion, the best option.

What Commission meeting do you want these heard—March 27, April 10, or April 24?

Jim and David,

We are planning to file our response to the motion to compel on Monday the 12th. Let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Phil
