Subject: RE: SDPUC TC 11-087 -- NAT'S DISCOVERY RESPONSES/OBJECTIONS (CENTURYLINK - SECOND SET)

Scott, the words "documents, data, and other information" are qualified by the phrase "reviewed or analyzed by Carey Roesel in his preparation and drafting of his Direct Testimony." So, we're asking for the documents and information he reviewed from the time he started his preparation of his testimony through its completion. If Mr Roesel did not review his college textbooks and Continuing Educational materials in the preparation of his testimony, then we are not asking for those. On the other hand, if he did review his college textbook in the formulation of his testimony, then we're asking for that.

Thank you.

Todd:

Thanks for your below email.

Please clarify what "documents, data, and other information" CenturyLink is seeking in Data Requests 2.1 and 2.2

The information encompassed by these Data Request could include Mr. Roesel's college textbooks, continuing education materials, etc.

Please advise.

Scott, I have received and reviewed NAT's responses to CenturyLink's second set of discovery requests, which, in sum, asks for information reviewed by NAT's consultant, Mr. Roesel, in the preparation of his testimony. Your responses to 2.1, 2.2, and 2.3 are that they are outside the scope of this case. I fail to see how a question of what an expert has reviewed in preparation of testimony that has actually been filed in the case could be outside its scope. Please let me and the others know how it is that the information reviewed in preparation of an expert's testimony filed in a docket could be outside the docket.

Further, you object on the grounds that use of the words "facts, data, and other information" is vague. I also fail to see how that objection is sustainable. In short, CenturyLink wants to know what Mr. Roesel reviewed and analyzed, and such language was intended to provide detail of what is being requested.

Thanks.
