

Responses of Cincinnati Bell Any Distance Inc. to the Commission's Data Request 1 of Staff Member Patrick Steffensen in Docket Number TC12-162

Question 1-1) On page 5, item 9 of the application, it states CBAD will serve the same geographic area as Access Point Inc. Please confirm that this is effectively the areas served by CenturyLink.

Response: CBAD confirms that the geographic areas proposed in this Application as those of Access Point Inc. are in fact effectively the geographic areas served by CenturyLink.

Question 1-2) Per ARSD 20:10:32:03(16), is CBAD in good standing with the appropriate regulatory agency in the states where it is registered or certified?

Response: CBAD is in good standing with the appropriate regulatory agencies in every state that it is either registered or certified to operate in.

Question 1-3) Does CBAD agree to comply with SDCL 49-31-99, to obtain and update a list of persons who do not wish to receive unsolicited telephone calls? Does CBAD agree not to contact persons on the list?

Response: CBAD does agree to comply with SDCL 49-31-99 and to maintain an updated list of persons who do not wish to receive unsolicited telephone calls and to not contact such persons on the list.

Question 1-4) Does CBAD agree to register as a solicitor and pay the fee per SDCL 49-31-105?

Response: CBAD does not propose to serve residential customers and does not generally make unsolicited calls even to business customers. As such, CBAD does not believe the SDCL 49-31-105 applies to this Application as proposed.

Question 1-5) On page 8, item 22 of the application, it states CBAD's services are typically provided under contract. Please provide a copy of the contract customers sign.

Response: Attached is a copy of CBAD's standard template contract. The template and terms are negotiable to custom fit individual customer's length of commitment and overall telecommunications needs.

Question 1-6) Does the company agree to the condition that the company not offer any prepaid services (including prepaid calling cards) and not accept or require deposits or advance payments without prior approval of the Commission for interexchange service? Keep in mind that billing for monthly service is an advance payment if collected before service is rendered.

Response: CBAD does agree to the condition that the company not offer any prepaid services and to not accept or require deposits or advance payments for interexchange services.
