Unwanted Sales & Survey Calls

If you receive unwanted sales and/or survey calls, please take the following steps:

- Be skeptical of offers that sound too good to be true; they usually are.
- Report companies using questionable sales practices to the Better Business Bureau or your State Attorney General's office.
- Business Bureau or your State Attorney General's office.

 Disconnect computer-generated calls by hanging up your telephone for 12 to 15 seconds.
- 12. to 15 sections.
 Call your local telephone company to have your name removed at no charge—from any lists that they may lease to other firms. Customers with non-listed or non-published numbers are never included on the lists.
- Do not give your telephone credit card number to anyone who calls and asks for the number.

Telephone Assistance Programs Available in All States

CenturyLink offers assistance programs to make telephone service more affordable for low-income customers.

Lifeline provides eligible customers with a monthly credit to help offset the cost of their home phone line. Free Long-distance Restriction is also available upon request.

Tribal Lifeline provides eligible customers who live on a reservation with basic phone service for as little as $1 a month, plus taxes and surcharges. Free Long-distance Restriction is also available upon request,

Link-Up provides eligible customers with a one-time credit to help offset the installation charge for a home telephone line.

Eligibility requirements vary from state to state.

8-1-1 Call Before You Dig

A call to 8-1-1 connects the caller with the state One-Call Notification System whereby the caller can request the location of underground facilities. State law requires that everyone planning to excavate (or otherwise disturb the ground) must first call the state one-call notification center at least two business days, but not more than 10 days, before the work is scheduled to start. Except in emergencies, requests to locate underground facilities made after 5 p.m. Local Time, or on weekends and holidays, will not be dispatched until 7 a.m. the next business day. This service is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, and is a free call.
