

Application of Correct Solutions, LLC

Attachment III

Resumes of Management Personnel

Patrick H. Temple
Managing Director

Mr. Temple co-founded LaSalle in 1997. He oversees all aspects of LaSalle's operations, but focuses primarily on the strategic direction and growth of LaSalle and affiliated companies.

Mr. Temple's diverse and successful entrepreneurial career has spanned over four decades in the construction, real estate, healthcare, logistics, and corrections industries. Mr. Temple currently serves in various executive management and ownership roles in Southwestern Correctional, BAS Construction, M&T Property, Red River Corporation, and many others.

Mr. Temple began his career in sales for a large global pharmaceutical company. Mr. Temple earned a B.S. in Microbiology from Louisiana Tech University and is a licensed Commercial and General Contractor with the state of Louisiana.

Billy McConnell
Managing Director

Mr. McConnell co-founded LaSalle in 1997. He oversees all aspects of LaSalle's operations, but focuses primarily on the strategic direction and growth of LaSalle and affiliated companies.

Mr. McConnell's diverse and successful corporate and entrepreneurial career has spanned over four decades in the energy, construction, real estate, healthcare, logistics, and corrections industries. Mr. McConnell currently serves in various executive management and ownership roles in Southwestern Correctional, BAS Construction, M&T Property, Red River Corporation, and many others.

Mr. McConnell began his career as an engineer for Exxon, where he spent 15 years. After rising to Manager, he supervised a staff of 40 engineers and was responsible for distribution of chemical products for North and South America. Mr. McConnell earned a B.S. in Chemical Engineering from Louisiana Tech University and a J.D. from the University of Houston Bates College of Law. He is an active member of the American Correctional Association and has a passion for effective re-entry programs that change the lives of inmates.

Kevin Sumrall
Director of Operations

Mr. Sumrall joined LaSalle in 2000. He primarily focuses on facility operations and development, but also monitors general operations at all of LaSalle's Louisiana facilities.

Prior to joining LaSalle, Mr. Sumrall was the Assistant Warden for Maximum Security at the Tallulah Correctional Center for Youth. He also served as the Chief Internal Affairs Investigator.

Mr. Sumrall began his law enforcement career in 1984 with the East Carroll Sheriff's Office (ECSO) and served nearly fifteen years in a variety of roles. His final position with the ECSO was as Chief Criminal Deputy and Parish Jail Warden. Mr. Sumrall studied criminal justice at Northeast Louisiana University in Monroe, LA and has attended numerous law enforcement continuing education programs at Louisiana State University (LSU).

Clay McConnell

Director of Offender Programming

Mr. McConnell joined LaSalle in 2006. He focuses most of his time on inmate programs (including reception, drug rehabilitation, and re-entry), business development with law enforcement partners, information technology, and managing real estate of company affiliates.

Prior to joining LaSalle, Mr. McConnell was a pastor in the United Methodist Church where he served for ten years. He served in a variety of ministerial roles including the Associate Pastor at Grace Community in Shreveport, LA and as the Director of Wesley United Campus Ministries in Lafayette, LA. He is passionate about seeing people change their lives and live up to their potential.

Mr. McConnell earned a B.S. in Business Administration from Louisiana Tech University and a Master of Divinity from Asbury Theological Seminary. He is currently a member of the American Correctional Association (ACA) and the Texas Jail Association

Patrick M. Temple

CPA

Since 2006, Patrick Temple has been the Managing Member of M&T Development Company, LLC, a family-owned company specializing in the development of Low-Income Housing Tax Credit properties. He is currently a member of and has served on the board of directors for the Louisiana Association of Affordable Housing Providers. Prior to joining M&T, Mr. Temple worked in public accounting in the Assurances Services practice of PricewaterhouseCoopers, LLP in Dallas, TX. Mr. Temple is a certified public accountant licensed in Louisiana and Texas. He graduated from Texas A&M University from the Professional Program in Accounting at the Mays Business School with a Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting and a Master of Science in Finance. Mr. Temple is also involved in other areas of his family-owned company which operates in several industries including private corrections, farming, property management, and commercial real estate.

Ryan Horvath

Director of Legal Affairs & Risk Management

Mr. Horvath joined LaSalle in 2011. As Legal Director, he is responsible for providing legal support on a wide variety of both transactional and litigation matters. Collaborating with members of the management team he helps navigate the legal requirements related to new and existing market expansion and development. In his Risk Management role, Mr. Horvath's primary focus is on loss prevention and protection of employees, officers and property assets.

Prior to joining LaSalle Mr. Horvath worked in Dallas, TX area and experience in many areas of legal practice. Mr. Horvath received his Juris Doctor Degree from Oklahoma City University School of Law and his Bachelor of Arts Degree in Political Science & World Affairs from Baylor University. Mr. Horvath is a member of the American Bar Association (ABA), American Corrections Association (ACA), and the American Jail Association (AJA).