

Broadsmart Global, Inc.
Management Biographies

Todd Correl - CEO

Todd brings more than 24 years of finance, sales, and policy experience to the company. Todd began his career at Northwestern Mutual Financial Services in 1991, and quickly became a subject matter expert in deferred compensation plans for closely held C corporations. Thus, his clientele were very accomplished, successful SMB business owners which ultimately sparked his career in telecommunications. In 1997, he became the VP of sales at Southeast Telecom, a facilities based carrier start-up backed by some of Wall Street's largest investment banks. Within a year, Todd was promoted to VP of Sales and Operations overseeing everyday sales as well as installation and testing of a Siemens EWSD and Metasolv, among other facets of the business. In 2000, Todd began looking at UNE-P (Unbundled Network Elements) as a viable business in the telecom space. Six months later, North American Telecommunications was founded.

Thomas Tharrington – President (bio previously provided)

Thomas Fuller – CFO (Replaced Jose Gordo as of May 10, 2017)

Thomas Fuller, age 45, was a telecommunications industry consultant with Echo Financial Business Consulting, a consulting firm he co-founded to provide financial and operational consulting and transaction support services to companies predominantly in the telecommunications industry. Prior thereto, from 2003 to 2014 Mr. Fuller served at IPC Systems Inc, a specialized network service and telecommunication equipment provider, in various financial and operational roles including EMEA Finance Director, VP Business Development & Operations and most recently as SVP Marketing & Sales Support. Prior to IPC, Mr. Fuller served as the Finance Director for two Benchmark Capital funded start-ups, and as the UK Finance Director for Sterling Software Inc. Mr. Fuller began his career at Ernst & Young where he worked as an audit manager and within the Due Diligence practice.