

Broadsmart Global, Inc.
Supplemental Information
Docket No. TC17-013

Broadsmart Global, Inc. submits the following information in response to requests of Commissioner Fiegen during the May 9, 2017 Commission meeting:

1) Financial projections for the company

The Company has not developed financial projections. As a publicly held company, Broadsmart Global cannot produce forward looking financial information that has not been properly disclosed.

2) A breakout of the financials already in the docket.

See attached detailed financial information, which is being submitted as confidential information.

3) Biographies of more management employees

Biographies of key management are attached. These officers will have direct responsibility for the operations of Broadsmart Global and will oversee all other employees.