IMPORTANT INFORMATION

At CenturyLink, we strive to provide you with quality products at great values. That's why we want to be sure you understand your rights as a customer, as well as the various rates and charges that are included in your CenturyLink service. Please call us at the number located in the Manage Your Account section of the bill if you have questions about any of this information.

Federal Universal Service Fund Changes – The Federal Universal Service Fund (USF) rate is reviewed on a quarterly basis by the Federal Communications Commission (FCC). Consequently, you may see changes on your bills in January, April, July and/or October. CenturyLink will apply rate changes on all applicable CenturyLink charges, such as those for the local line, private line interstate, long-distance interstate and international service. The Federal USF rate and charge are clearly identified on your bill. The effective rate can be found on <http://www.fcc.gov/encyclopedia/contribution-factor-quarterly-filings-universal-service-fund-usf-management-support>.

Federal Access Charge Changes - The annual adjustments of a federally approved telephone Subscriber Line Charge and Access Recovery Charge took effect July 1, 2020. These rates may be reviewed and adjusted in October, as well. These charges cover part of the cost for providing access to and maintenance of your local network. The effective rates can be found on your bill.

CenturyLink Customer Rights

Local Service – Your CenturyLink local telephone service includes dial-tone; access to the long-distance network; any call to 911 emergency services; one white page directory listing; and a telephone directory. As long as you pay all of your local telephone charges, your service cannot be disconnected or interrupted. CenturyLink may require a refundable deposit to establish service.

Local Toll Service – Local toll service (or intraLATA service, or local long-distance service) provides calling to numbers outside your local service calling area but within your local toll calling area. Toll charges usually apply.

Long-Distance Service – You have the right to choose your long-distance service (or intrastate and interstate service) provider, subject to availability. Check the yellow pages for the names and telephone numbers of long-distance companies serving your area. CenturyLink Long Distance provides long-distance service.

Toll Call Blocking – You can request that outgoing local toll and long-distance calls be disallowed from your phone. Simply request the services be blocked by CenturyLink (charges may apply).

Privacy - CenturyLink is committed to maintaining our customers' privacy. Like most companies, we collect information about our customers and use it to provide our services. We also share it as needed to meet our business goals or fulfill our legal obligations. We protect the information we have about our customers, and we require those we share it with to protect it too. Our Privacy Notice describes the information we collect, how we use and share it, the choices you have about our use and sharing, and the steps we take to protect it. You can find our Privacy Notice here <https://www.centurylink.com/aboutus/legal/privacy-policy.html> or, if you are unable to access the Internet, write us at CenturyLink Privacy Group, 931 14th Street, Suite 900, Denver, CO 80202 to request a printed copy.

Long-Distance Carrier Freeze – You can also request that CenturyLink “freeze” your long-distance carrier, meaning that the carrier cannot be changed without your express permission. If a change in carrier is made that you have not authorized, call CenturyLink or your preferred long-distance provider and report it. CenturyLink will correct the unauthorized change at no charge.

Inside Wiring and Telephone Equipment - You are responsible for the maintenance of all telephone equipment and telephone wiring inside your home. CenturyLink offers wire maintenance plans (charges apply).

Payment Responsibility - Your name will appear on the bill for your service, and you are responsible for all charges related to the products, services and other items you have ordered. Partial payments will be allotted first to local telephone services and last to non-local telephone services, unless you direct otherwise.

Call Information Blocking - You may block the display of your telephone number to customers who use our CLASS services (such as Caller ID or Last Call Return). Per-call blocking is free and automatically available to all customers: Simply dial “*67” (or 1167 from rotary phones) immediately before placing your call. You may also request free per-line blocking, which will block the display of your number for all calls.

Information About Caller ID “Number Spoofing” - Be aware: a variety of websites and vendors offer services that will let a person make it look like they are calling from any number they want. In this situation, the name or number that displays on the caller ID or similar equipment may not be the information of the calling party. This is often called “number spoofing.” Sometimes it is done for a legitimate purpose, sometimes it is not.

Harassing Phone Calls - If you receive harassing or obscene phone calls, you may call the CenturyLink Annoyance Call Bureau at 1 800.582.0655 for assistance or consult your local police department. Where available, you may also automatically trace individual harassing or obscene calls by dialing “*57” (or 1157 from rotary phones) immediately after receiving one. After you have completed three successful traces to the same number, simply call our Annoyance Call Bureau to let them know. We will send a letter to the address from which the calls were made and, at your request, forward the trace information to your local police department.

Your Rights Regarding Pay-Per-Call Information-Delivery Services - CenturyLink wants to be sure you are informed of your legal rights related to pay-per-call information-delivery services. These are services you generally access through dialing prefixes like “900” or “700” and that charge by the call or by the minute. Pay-per-call services can include recorded telephone messages, interactive programs or other information services. CenturyLink does not provide interstate pay-per-call services. But we do bill customers in our local service region on behalf of many third-party companies, including interexchange long-distance carriers and billing aggregators. A number of these companies, in turn, bill on behalf of pay-per-call service providers. You have specific rights and responsibilities regarding pay-per-call charges that may appear on any of these various companies’ bill pages within your CenturyLink bill. We are providing this notice in order to explain those rights as described in the federal Telephone Disclosure and Dispute Resolution Act (TDDRA).

To Report a Billing Error - If you believe you have been billed in error for any pay-per-call services, call the toll-free number listed on the bill page where the pay-per-call charge appears no later than 60 days after you receive the bill containing the charges; or 60 days after the goods you ordered were delivered or should have been delivered, whichever is later. When you call, be prepared to provide the following information:

- Your name and telephone number
- The date the disputed charges first appeared on your bill
- The amount of the disputed charges
- A brief explanation of why you believe you were billed in error

If you contact CenturyLink - either directly or because CenturyLink is acting as the first point-of-contact for a pay-per-call billing entity - about a disputed charge, CenturyLink will credit your bill for the disputed amount and refer the matter and the charges back to the billing entity. That billing entity, or the pay-per-call service provider, may elect to pursue further action, so it is always good to follow-up with the entity billing the charges on behalf of the pay-per call provider to assure full resolution of your matter.

Response from the Billing Company - In the event you contact the company whose name appears on the bill page where the pay-per-call charge appears, in a timely manner, they must acknowledge your claim in writing within 40 days if they haven't resolved your claim within that time. This company must also acknowledge that you are not required to pay the disputed charge pending resolution of their investigation. You must still pay the undisputed portion of your bill; failure to pay may result in your access to pay-per-call services being involuntarily blocked and/or collections activity against you. If the disputed amount has already been sent to collections, the collection activity will be suspended. This same company must investigate, within 90 days of your initial complaint, whether or not the disputed charges are valid. If there was a billing error, the billing company will let you know and will adjust the charges as appropriate. If the charges have been referred to collections, the collections activity will stop. If the billing company determines the charges were not billed in error, you will receive a written explanation detailing how that conclusion was reached, how much you owe, and the date by which you must pay it. Failure to pay could lead to collection activity. If you continue to dispute the charges, the billing company should not report you as delinquent without also reporting that you continue to dispute the charges.

Compliance - Any long-distance carrier or billing aggregator acting as a billing agent for a pay-per-call service provider that does not comply with the federal rules may not collect the first $50 of any disputed pay-per-call transaction - regardless of whether or not the disputed charges are discovered to be correct.

Additional Customer Rights - You have a right not to be billed for pay-per call services that do not comply with federal laws and regulations. Your local telephone service cannot be disconnected if you do not pay for pay-per-call services. You may request a block to prevent access to pay-per-call services from your phone line. CenturyLink will provide the block, where feasible, at no charge to you.

Telecommunications Relay Service

Dial 7-1-1 or Special Toll-Free Numbers Listed in Your Telephone Directory

Telecommunications Relay Service is a free telephone service that allows persons with hearing or speech disabilities to place and receive telephone calls using standard telephone equipment or telephone equipment designed for individuals with disabilities. To use Relay dial one of the toll free numbers listed in your telephone directory, or simply dial 7-1-1. A specially trained Communications Assistant (CA) will answer your call and relay the telephone conversation between you and the party you are calling. All call information and conversations are confidential. Relay service is available 24 hours per day, 365 days a year. Long distance calls placed for you can be billed to your existing long-distance service calling plan, collect, or with the use of a pre-paid calling card, carrier calling card, or third-party billing.

Types of TRS Calls

Computer (ASCII): users can access Relay Service by setting the communications software to the following protocols: speeds ranging from 300 to 2400 baud: 8 Bits, No Parity; 1 Stop Bit; Full Duplex. For speeds at or below 300 baud, follow the above using Half Duplex.

Hearing-Carry-Over (HCO): HCO allows hearing individuals with very limited or no speech capability to type his or her conversation for the Communications Assistant to read aloud to the hearing person. The HCO user hears the other party's response. HCO requires a specially designed telephone.

Internet Protocol (IP) Relay: Connect to the relay using your computer or other web device. The Communications Assistant handles the call the same as a traditional relay call - "voicing" or reading everything you type to the other party - and typing everything the other party says for you to read on your screen.

Spanish Relay: Spanish speaking persons with a hearing or speech disability are able to make relay calls. This is not a translation service – both parties must speak Spanish, and at least one party must have a hearing or speech disability.

Speech-to-Speech (STS): STS allows a person who has difficulty speaking or being understood on the phone to communicate using his or her own voice or voice synthesizer. The Communications Assistant revoices the words of the person with the speech disability so the person on the call can understand them. No special telephone is required.

Text Telephone (TTY): Allows anyone who is deaf, hard of hearing or speech disabled to use a TTY to communicate with anyone using a standard telephone.

Video Relay Service (VRS): Allows natural telephone communication between Sign Language and standard telephone users. This service requires high-speed internet service such as DSL, cable modem, or mobile broadband modem.

Voice-Carry-Over: VCO enables people who have difficulty hearing on the phone to voice their conversations directly to the hearing person. The CA then types the hearing person's response to the VCO user. (Requires a special telephone with text display.)

Voice/Standard Telephone: A hearing person may use a standard telephone to place a relay call and easily converse with a person who is deaf, hard of hearing or speech disabled.

Voice Over Internet Protocol (VOIP): VoIP customers can access the Telecommunications Relay Service (TRS) by dialing 7-1-1 or using the toll-free number listed in your telephone directory.

Captioned Telephone Relay

CapTel uses a telephone with a text display screen to allow a person who is hard of hearing to see word-for-word captions of what the other party on the call is saying, while also listening to what is being said using their residual hearing (much like TV captioning). The CapTel user speaks directly to the other person on the call, and the CA uses voice recognition technology to repeat what the other party says, which is then transmitted as text to the user's specialized CapTel phone.

TTY Users and Emergency Assistance ("9-1-1")

TTY callers should dial 9-1-1 directly. All 9-1-1 centers are equipped to handle TTY calls. Using Relay for 9-1-1 may result in a delay to getting your urgent message through. For more information about TRS, please go to the following URL:

Monitoring and Recording of Calls with CenturyLink Business Offices and Other CenturyLink Representatives

Please remember, when you call CenturyLink for sales, service or repair issues, CenturyLink may monitor or record those calls for quality assurance or training purposes. Additionally, when a CenturyLink customer service representative or repair technician calls you, those calls too may be monitored or recorded for the same purpose. Please inform all members of your household or business who may be in contact with CenturyLink of this information.

High Cost Fund (Applicable to Colorado Customers Only) – NOTICE

You may have noticed a charge on your telephone bill for the Colorado Universal Service Fund. This charge is required by the Colorado Public Utilities Commission (PUC) to pay for the Colorado Universal Service fund established by state law.

What is the Colorado Universal Service Fund?

There are two primary purposes of the fund: (1) to make basic voice telephone service affordable in certain high cost areas of Colorado; and (2) to provide funds for grants to build broadband networks in unserved areas of Colorado. The PUC provides Universal Service Fund payments for basic voice telephone service to telephone companies that serve areas with high costs and meet other PUC requirements for the funding. Grants for building broadband networks are determined and overseen by the Colorado Broadband Deployment Board. Payments to telecom providers for basic voice telephone service in high cost areas are overseen by the PUC.

What services is this charge applied to and who pays it?

This charge is assessed as a percentage of your in-state telecommunications services for local, wireless, paging, in-state long distance, and optional services. The charge is not applied to interstate services. All telecommunications customers in Colorado pay this monthly charge.

What is the monthly charge?

The monthly charge is currently set at 2.6 percent, which was effective April 1, 2013. The PUC may adjust the charge over time depending on how much money is needed for the fund and to make sure that customers do not pay more than is necessary.

Who do I call if I have questions about this charge?

For more information, contact your telecommunications provider.

Slamming - Have you ever been slammed? Would you know if you have? Slamming is when one telephone company changes a customer's telephone service - usually long distance service - to another telephone company without that customer's permission. CenturyLink is here to offer some helpful tips on how to avoid being a victim of slamming. Initially, you should call your local telephone company and request a "PC FREEZE" (Preferred Carrier), which will prohibit future changes to your carrier selection until further notice from you. If you receive a call from a telemarketer asking you to change your long distance service and you are happy with your current service, just say that you are not interested and hang up. Don't verify your name, your spouse's name, or your address and never give out your Social Security number. Always carefully read the fine print on everything, including any checks, offers for calling cards, sweepstakes or drawings. If you are slammed, notify your local company to reconnect you to your preferred long distance company at no charge. If the rates charged are higher than your normal rates, you may be entitled to a refund.

Telephone Assistance - CenturyLink participates in a government benefit program (Lifeline) to make residential telephone or qualifying broadband service more affordable to eligible low-income individuals and families. Eligible customers are those that meet eligibility standards as defined by the FCC and state commissions. Residents who live on federally recognized Tribal Lands may qualify for additional Tribal Lifeline credits. The Lifeline discount is available for only one telephone or broadband service per household and can be on either wireline or wireless service. Broadband speeds must be 25 Mbps download and 3 Mbps upload or faster to qualify. A household is defined for the purposes of the Lifeline program as any individual or group of individuals who live together at the same address and share income and expenses. Lifeline service is not transferable, and only eligible consumers may enroll in the program. Consumers who willfully make false statements in order to obtain Lifeline telephone service can be punished by fine or imprisonment and can be barred from the program. If you live in a CenturyLink service area you may be eligible for assistance in paying for your telephone bill if you receive benefits from certain low-income assistance programs or meet certain income limits, please call 1-800-201-4099 or visit centurylink.com/lifeline with questions or to request an application for the Lifeline program.

Annual Customer Do-Not-Call Notification - The federal government established a national Do-Not-Call Registry where consumers can register their residential telephone number(s) (including wireless) for free and it will remain on the national Do-Not-Call Registry until you remove or discontinue it. Consumers can register their numbers from the phone number they wish to register by telephone at 1 888-382-1222 or through the Internet at www.donotcall.gov. TTY users should call 1-866-290-4236.

8-1-1 Call Before You Dig - 8-1-1 Call Before You Dig - Digging into underground telephone, electric, gas or water lines can disrupt service to your area or could cause serious injury and you could be charged substantial fines. For peace of mind, please call 8-1-1 at least two business days before digging up your property. This is a free service.

Fall moisture

As the growing season ends, it's a good time to look at soil moisture levels and consider how that might affect planning for next year. After looking over some precipitation data from the last year, below average precipitation appears to be the common denominator in most areas (no surprise there). However, a look at the last 30 days provides a bit more hope for sufficient soil moisture conditions.

The northeast has experienced some high rainfall events this past month. According to the NOAA High Plains Regional Climate Center, the Watertown Reg. Airport weather station reported 7.63" of rain in October alone, with the Sisseton ENR station coming in at 6.75" during the same period. The Doland and Westington Springs stations reported 6.68" and 6.02", respectively during October. According to SD Mesonet weather data, the South Shore station received +2.81" precipitation departure from normal in the month of October alone, with Grotton (+2.51"), Webster (+2.265"), Redfield (+2.03") and Britton (+2.03") close behind. Heavy rainfall in these areas has slowed down harvest for many, causing concerns about getting crops out before winter storm events; however, it will provide some soil moisture reprieve for the coming year.

Conversely, Mission, Winner (Wiley Field Station), Pactola Dam, Custer, and Mt. Rushmore stations have all reported less than an inch of precipitation since the beginning of October, creating drier than average conditions for parts of southwestern South Dakota. The Jewel Cave and Sturgis Mesonet stations reported a -0.66" and -0.30" departure from normal during the month of October, which is reflected on the US drought monitor observations. Hopefully some fall rains can help get these areas back to average conditions soon. I've heard our state climatologist, Laura Edwards previously mention that a wet fall season is a very efficient way to recharge soil moisture as there is little demand for water during this time.

Perennial crops like alfalfa and pasture/rangeland as well as winter cereals can reap great benefits from fall precipitation as they prepare for spring. Late season rains can also aid in livestock water availability and quality. However, do keep in mind that water should still be tested before turning livestock out. Many areas that had unsafe water tests during the summer drought may not necessarily be out of the woods yet. Water quality can depend on many factors such as soil type, runoff, and weather conditions, so testing water before turning out animals (regardless of recent rainfall) is sound practice.

October precipitation events helped recharge soils in a large portion of South Dakota, getting most of the state free of drought status. The southwest is still in need of rain, but conditions have improved since Oct. 1. After a year like 2019, it can be hard to digest drought conditions, but soil moisture can change rather quickly. Keep an eye on the weather data for your area as you begin planning for next season.

To make your own data comparisons check out the SD Mesonet at <https://mesonet.sdstate.edu/>. The Mesonet offers very useful, free agriculture tools such as Ag Weather, Degree Days, Livestock Stress, Small Grain Disease, and Spray Tool. There are currently 34 Mesonet weather stations across South Dakota with several more on the way in coming years!

Rushmores fall in Phoenix, look to Florida next

The South Dakota Rushmores 75+ baseball team competed in the men's senior baseball league World Series in Phoenix. They played on the major league practice fields last week.

The team went 2-3 in pool play and entered the single elimination tournament on Friday, seeded #3. They were eliminated by the San Antonio Broncos in the first game of the playoffs, 11-2. They will now travel to Ft. Myers, Florida to play in the Roy Hobbs Senior Men's World Series, Nov. 13-20.

They faced the Red Sox last Wednesday and started out slow, allowing five runs in the second inning. They rallied in the bottom of the fourth with inning runs of their own and went on for the 11-6 win.

Leaders for the Rushmores were Howie Bich with three hits and two RBIs, Phil Trovoin had three hits and one RBI, Phil Clements had three hits and scored one run. Doug Stormo had two hits and scored two runs. Mike Held had one hit with three RBIs with a single that scored three runs. Ev Bradshaw had one hit and scored one run. Gerry Noack relieved Lew Ingalls in the third inning and kept the Red Sox scoreless until they scored one run in the ninth.

Red Ribbon Week observed at Clark Elementary

Clark School counselor Felicia Reed reports that Red Ribbon Week was celebrated recently at Clark Elementary.

Red Ribbon Week is an alcohol, tobacco and other drug and violence prevention awareness campaign observed annually in October in the United States. It began as a tribute to fallen DEA special agent Enrique Camarena in 1985. This year Red Ribbon Week was observed from October 23 through the 31st. The theme this year for 2021 was "Drug Free Looks Like Me".

Reed said, "As part of our Red Ribbon Campaign, Clark Elementary students learned about making healthy choices, signed a pledge to stay healthy and colored their own red ribbons. They also had the opportunity to be in a name drawing for prizes."

Volleyball ends season with 11-15 record

The Custer girls volleyball team ended its season with an 11-15 win/loss record after the first round of the No. 3 ranked Belle Fourche Broncos last Tuesday night in Belle. The Broncos beat the No. 6 Wildcats in straight sets to win the right to compete for a spot in the SoDak 16. "The first set was very rough for us," said Wildcat head coach Jill Hohn. "After a strong start we languished and let them dominate." And dominate they did. The Broncos won the first set by a 16-point margin. "We came back stronger in the second and third sets and did not go down without a fight," said Hohn. The score was not lopsided in set two which ended up at 25-14 and set three was much closer. The final score was 25-23. "Belle Fourche has a consistent team with proficient hitters on all fronts," said Hohn. JoJo Larsen did a nice job adjusting to their hitters and came away with some great digs to help us stay in the last two sets. However, we were not able to get a consistent strong offense going and had too many defensive errors to capitalize on her comeback." Larsen had a total of eight digs and also contributed two kills. Ally Cass had eight kills and three digs. Taylor Neugebauer had four kills, Bailey Cass had three kills and Josey Wahlstrom made 12 assists.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Giving Thanks

Pastor Brandon Wenzel | Quest Church

We have finally made it! The holiday season is upon us as we move into Thanksgiving week and in 45 days we'll finish up with New Year's Day. This period of time every year is one of my favorites. It seems like the smells change and people's attitudes change, and then there's the food. It's always about the food! Gathering around the table with family and friends is truly the highlight of the holidays. It seems like there are things to be so hopeful of. As we look forward surrounded by our loved ones, we can give thanks for the blessings in our life. And blessing looks like so many different things. Often times we as Americans see it as financial blessings or gifts, but it encompasses so much more. Blessing comes in forms of relationships, unexplainable joy, and hope.

A hope for the future is one of the biggest blessings we can have in our life. Jesus at the end of His life gathered the disciples at a table full of food in order to give them a hope for tomorrow. The ordinance of Communion clearly gives not only the disciples, but us as well, a hope that Jesus will be the Salvation that we all desire. Matthew 26:27-29 says this after having dinner. "Then he took a cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, 'Drink from it, all of you. This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. I tell you, I will not drink from this fruit of the vine from now on until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.'"

This simple act changed the world. By Jesus dying on a cross 2,000 years ago, He gave us an eternal hope. One that is the greatest blessing of all. That no matter what our life looks like or how empty the table around us may be, we have a hope in Jesus. All we need to do is believe in His death and resurrection and begin walking down the road with Jesus. Living like He would and listening to the guidance of the Holy Spirit. That hope is something worth giving thanks over.

Wilbert "Bert" Cain Jr. was born June 16, 1935, in Hawarden, IA to Wilbert and Elizabeth "Betty" (Jensen) Cain Sr. He graduated from Hawarden High School. Bert enlisted in the United States Army and worked with some of the very first military drones. Upon his return from the service, he worked road construction. In early 1964, Sharon's Dad, Bucky, introduced Bert to his daughter. The two began dating and the rest as they say is history. They were married in October of 1964 at St. Mary Catholic Church in Dell Rapids. The couple spent many years living in Sioux Falls before moving to Colman in 1979. Earlier in his life Bert attended what is now University of Sioux Falls and received a degree in Psychology. He worked for the South Dakota State Penitentiary for many years.

Bert enjoyed being outdoors. He loved to garden, trap and fish. After he moved his family to Colman his garden grew substantially. The family ate fresh vegetables at almost every meal. He canned as much as he could and gave a lot of produce away. He took great joy from working the ground and producing food for his family. He also loved to cook. Cooking was his passion, and most people that knew him have eaten a meal made by Bert! Nothing brought him more joy than to see the smiles that followed one of his wonderful meals. His family especially enjoyed his smoked salmon dip. Bert enjoyed the sporting outdoors as well. He had the pleasure of fishing in almost every state of the union. He was known to cook at Ducks Unlimited Banquet fundraisers and wild game feeds.

But mostly, Bert loved his family. They were the light of his life, and he enjoyed every opportunity for family get togethers. He will be greatly missed by many.

He is survived by his wife, Sharon Cain of Colman, SD; daughter, Shannon Hill of Colman, SD, and her children, Katie (Jenner) Rabanales, Bruce "Billy" Crawford, Sioux Falls, SD, Alan Moore, Jr. Brookings, SD, Savannah Moore, Kansas City, MO, Airman Olivia Moore, Ramstein AFB, Germany, and Elizabeth Moore, Fort Valley State University, GA. Daughter, Paula (Doug) Cox of Sioux Falls, SD and her children, Tori (Dan Kocmick) Cain of Sioux Falls, Staff Sgt Reno (and fiancée Yoko) Cain of Sacramento, CA, Kiana (Antwan Brown) Howard of Sioux Falls, SD, Meisha Howard of Colman, SD, and Ellis Howard Jr. of Sioux Falls, SD. 12 great-grandchildren. One sister, Deanna (Don) Lockhorst of Ireton, IA; brothers, Dan (Jan) Cain of Ireton, IA, and Steve (Connie) Cain of Beresford, SD.

Bert was preceded in death by his parents, Wilbert and Betty Cain; and brother, Chief Master Sgt. Larry Cain.

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT TO THE General Public of the Cheyenne River Sioux Indian Reservation

Pfizer COVID-19 Vaccine Now Available at the Cheyenne River Health Center for Ages 5+

The United States Food and Drug Administration (FDA) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) have recently authorized and recommended the Pfizer-BioNTech COVID-19 vaccine for children aged 5-11.

Who is eligible for the pediatric COVID-19 vaccine?

- All children ages 5-11 are eligible to receive the COVID-19 vaccine.
- Children ages 12-17 are eligible to receive the Pfizer COVID-19 vaccine authorized for adults.

What is the difference between the Pediatric Pfizer COVID-19 vaccine and the Adult Pfizer COVID-19 vaccine?

- The pediatric vaccine (for ages 5-11) is the same vaccine as that for persons 12 and older but is given at a lower dose.
- Both vaccines come in a two-dose series and are given three weeks apart.

Is the vaccine safe for children 5-11 years old?

- Over 3,000 children have received the vaccine during clinical trials.
- The data collected during the trials proved effectiveness and serious side effects were rare.
- The most common side effects include headaches, fever and chills and should resolve within a few days post vaccination.

How well does the vaccine work?

- Clinical trials conducted on children ages 5-11 have shown 90.7% efficacy in building immunity against COVID-19.
- The vaccine produces a strong immune response in children which helps prevent serious illness from the COVID-19 virus.

Why should children get vaccinated for COVID-19?

- Getting a COVID-19 vaccine can help protect children ages 5 years and older from getting COVID-19 or its variants.
- Vaccinating children can help protect family members, including siblings who are not eligible for vaccination and family members who may be at increased risk of getting sick if they are infected.
- Vaccination can also help protect children from both short-term complications like hospitalization and long-term health complications due to COVID-19. Vaccinating children ages 5 years and older can help keep them in school and help them safely participate in sports, playdates and other group activities.

If you have questions regarding whether the COVID-19 vaccine is right for your child please schedule an appointment with your child's pediatrician/primary care provider.

Lifeline is the FCC's program to help make communication services more affordable for low-income consumers. Lifeline provides subscribers a discount on monthly telephone or broadband service purchased from participating providers. The discounts which can be applied to voice services, a voice bundle, broadband services, or bundled broadband packages (either fixed or mobile), help ensure that low-income consumers can afford state-of-the-art voice or broadband and the access they provide to jobs, education, and opportunities.

The Lifeline discount may be used for voice or qualified broadband service, but not both.

- Lifeline discounts on voice services are available to participants of both state and federally-recognized aid programs.
- Lifeline discounts on broadband services are available to participants of federally-recognized aid programs and is limited to certain broadband services. Broadband speeds must be 25 Mbps download and 3 Mbps upload or faster to qualify.
- If you purchase voice and qualifying broadband services, the federal Lifeline discount will apply to your qualifying broadband service.
- If you purchase voice service and a non-qualifying broadband service, you may qualify to receive both state and federal Lifeline discounts on your voice service.

Standard Lifeline — provides federal monthly support of up to $9.25 for qualifying broadband service and $5.25 for voice services. In some states, additional monthly support is also available.

Tribal Lifeline — offers a deeper monthly discount as well as installation assistance through the Link-Up program to qualifying customers who live on federally-recognized Tribal lands.
