

Exhibit C

Gallatin's Ownership Structure

Tri County Telephone Association, Inc. (TCT) is a Wyoming corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of BHT Holdings, Inc. (BHT Holdings). TCT is an incumbent and competitive local exchange carrier in Wyoming and Montana and provides broadband Internet access via fiber, DSL and fixed wireless.

Gallatin Wireless Internet, LLC (Gallatin) is a wholly owned subsidiary of BHT Investment Holdings, LLC. Gallatin has two DBAs in different states. In Montana, its DBA is WispWest. In Wyoming and South Dakota, its DBA is Celerity Internet. Gallatin acquired the assets of Celerity Networks LLC and Celerity Broadband LLC in May of 2022, and now operates both of them as Celerity Internet (since that time). Gallatin provides telephone and broadband Internet access via fixed wireless and fiber.

BHT Holdings, Inc. is a Wyoming corporation that operates as a holding company for TCT. BHT Investment Holdings, LLC is a Wyoming limited liability company that operates as a holding company for Gallatin. BHT Holdings, Inc and BHT Investment Holdings, LLC are under common ownership and control. Neither BHT Holdings, Inc. nor BHT Investment Holdings, LLC provide any direct telecommunications services, only their wholly owned subsidiaries.

BHT Investment Holdings also owns BHT Investments, LLC (BHTI), a Wyoming limited liability company, which, in turn, owns Bush-Tell, Inc. (Bush-Tell), an Alaska corporation. BHTI does not provide any telecommunications services. Bush-Tell is an Alaska incumbent local exchange carrier providing telephone and Internet.
