Available to Santel Low-Income Subscribers

The Lifeline Program is a federal program that provides a monthly benefit on home or wireless phone and broadband service to eligible households.

The Lifeline benefit can lower the cost of your monthly phone or internet bill. Only one benefit is available per household; either phone service (home or wireless) or internet (home or mobile), but not both.

There are two ways to qualify:

INCOME: If your household's income is at or below 135 percent of the federal poverty guidelines, you may be eligible for a Lifeline Program benefit. You can check whether your income qualifies on the federal poverty guidelines eligibility chart which can be found at www.lifeline-support.org. If your income is at or below the amount listed for your household's size and location, your household may be eligible for a Lifeline Program benefit.

PROGRAM-BASED ELIGIBILITY: If someone in your household participates in one of these federal programs, you may be eligible for a Lifeline Program benefit:

- Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), formerly known as Food Stamps;
- Medicaid;
- Supplemental Security Income (SSI);
- Federal Public Housing Assistance (FPHA) or Section 8;
- Veterans Pension and Survivors Benefit
- Tribal Programs (and live on federally-recognized Tribal lands)

Lifeline provides eligible subscribers with a credit of $9.25 per month on their broadband service or $5.25 per month for those who have telephone service only. Customers may also receive long distance blocks at no charge and the Federal Universal Service Charge (FUSC) will also be waived.
